

2015 Summer Internship
Criminal Division
Government Ethics
U.S. Department of Justice
Washington, DC

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN ETHICS?

If so, the Criminal Division of the U.S. Department of Justice is seeking a volunteer intern to work with the Criminal Division's ethics officer. Learn the ins and outs of government ethics, including application of criminal statutes, Standards of Conduct, general ethics principles, bar rules, and the Ethics Pledge. Apply applicable law and policy to situations that arise every day in the Criminal Division. Learn about conflicts, appearance issues, impartiality in performing official duties, outside activities, gifts, political activities, misuse of official position, contractor issues, financial disclosure, seeking employment, post-employment, travel, and joint collaborations with non-Federal entities. The position also requires clerical assistance. Summer interns will have the opportunity to learn about the work of the Criminal Division.

Internship Location: Washington, D.C.

Application Materials: To apply for this internship, please submit a cover letter, resume, and writing sample via email at ethics.internship@usdoj.gov.

Application Deadline: Applications for summer internships will be accepted through February 26, 2015.

Minimum Weeks Required: A minimum of 6 to 8 weeks, 20 – 40 hours per week, is required.

The U.S. Department of Justice is an Equal Opportunity/Reasonable Accommodation Employer. It is the policy of the Department to achieve a drug-free workplace, and the candidates(s) selected will be required to pass a drug test to screen for illegal drug use. Internship opportunities are also contingent upon the satisfactory completion of a background investigation adjudicated by the Department of Justice.
